

Cosmopolitan Productions presents HELIO TROPE

The Greatest Story of Father Love Ever Filmed

From a Story by Richard Washburn Child

"Heliotrope Harry" is his name. A self-wrecked man, silent in prison to protect his daughter, who never knew his disgrace. But when she is in peril from her blackmailing mother, he wins his freedom to save her.

A simple little gift of heliotrope left in the woman's room, and the victory is half his. It tells his wife that her inhuman plot is half wrecked, that "Heliotrope Harry," whom she fears more than death, is free.

Fear, subtle suggestion with the odor of his favorite flower, drives the woman to frenzy. She turns from her prey to the man. The girl wins. The man pays.
